REFUSED $1,500 OFFER

For Pitcher Grover of Maysville Team—St. Louis Browns the Bidder

Fifteen hundred dollars offered and refused for Pitcher Grover of the Maysville team. Three hundred dollars for Pitcher Wellman. Those are the figures which Scott Billy Doyle of the St. Louis Browns offered President Russell of the Maysville Bluegrass Club for the two players.

Grover is a recruit picked up by the Maysville Club months ago, and the speed he has developed in the pitcher's box has attracted the notice of the major leaguers and Scott Doyle has had his eye on him and Wellman for some time.

President Russell realizes that Grover has league stuff in him and refused the $1,500 offer for Grover and $300 for Wellman.

This is the biggest offer ever made for a Bluegrass League player and shows that this league stands close to the major leaguers in fast players.

DR. C. TABB PEARCE

To Marry Scottish Lassie—His Second Venture

Sunday's Cincinnati Enquirer—"An announcement of interest is that of the marriage on June 26th of Dr. Charles Tabb Pearce and a charming Scottish lassie, Miss Jean Wisbart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wisbart, of Strathern, Kirkcaldy, Scotland. Dr. Pearce left last night for New York, whence he sailed for the British Isles. He met his fiancée on the journey to the North Cape last year, which he and Mr. J. H. Thormann enjoyed together and later both visited Mr. and Mrs. Wisbart at their country seat, Strathern, where the marriage will take place. Mr. Thormann being Dr. Pearce's best man. Later Dr. Pearce and his bride, after a fortnight in Scotland, will join Mr. and Mrs. Thormann in Cologne, and they will investigate Bavarian Highlands together, returning by the same steamer to the States in September."

Dr. Pearce is a native of this city and is the eldest son of the late Charles Bridge Pearce.

The L. & N. passenger train due to arrive here at 10 o'clock a. m. was two and a half hours late Monday, due to a wreck near Pleasant Valley. The Lexington and Maysville ball teams were on board the delayed train.

RATINE The Style- Note of 1912

Some call this much wanted fabric terry cloth, another name is agaric, the ultra correct speak of ratine and practical shoppers say turkish toweling. But on one point all agree and that is, this much named fabric is just as much wanted by fashion's dictators. For trimming, for the popular Norfolk suits, for separate waists and coats, for the one-piece dress of women, misses and children it ranks first as a distinctly new and stylish note for the summer of 1912.

AT 50c YARD. A beautiful cool shade of blue and a lovely shade of tan—this season's popular color.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

The Massachusetts Supreme Court pronounces unconstitutional a bill to exempt trade unions from actions of tort.

The total wealth of the world is now estimated at the huge sum of $115,800,000,000, in which the share of the United States is $25,476,000,000.

According to recent compilations of the Canadian labor department, the cost of living in the Dominion shows an average increase of 5 per cent. over the previous year.

According to an address made in Cincinnati recently by Rev. Rutherford, of Brooklyn, he said: "One hundred thousand persons disappear from this world every day, yet all our search has not revealed where they are."

When the import tax was taken off coffee years ago the price to the consumer did not come down and stay down. The only way the price of sugar can be permanently reduced is by producing it more cheaply in our own country. At present our chief supply of domestic cane sugar is produced in Louisiana, while beet sugar production is a flourishing industry in Colorado, California, Michigan, Wisconsin, Utah and Idaho.

A committee of the city-wide congress at Baltimore, which investigated the cost of living, reports that prices have increased for the following reasons: Increased supply of gold price control; tariff; abuse of cold storage; decreased labor on farms; decrease of farming around the city; excessive profits by middlemen; too much handling between producer and consumer; too much purchasing on much advanced prices; growing luxuriousness.

FULL OF YEARS

Mrs. Sally Jackson Cox Goes to Her Reward—Widow of Thornton M. Cox

Mrs. Sally J. Cox departed this life Monday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Whitaker, in this city, at her 81st year.

Mrs. Cox was born in Clarke county, Ky., was the second daughter of Samuel G. Jackson, founder and owner of the Red River Iron Works, in that county. Two sisters, Mrs. Ann Nickola and Mrs. T. T. Crittenden, both of Missouri, and two brothers, Samuel and Lewis Jackson, alone remain as the representatives of this old family.

She was the widow of the late Thornton M. Cox and was in her 81st year.

Of her own family she left surviving her, four children, Thornton S. Cox of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. J. L. Whitaker of this city, Mrs. Annie J. Wadsworth and Lizzie M. Thompson of New York.

For a period of about 35 years the deceased had made Maysville her home, residing alternately with her daughters, Mrs. Whitaker and Mrs. Wadsworth, up to within about ten years preceding her death, during which time she had been an honored and much beloved member of the family of her son-in-law, Judge J. L. Whitaker.

About three years prior to her death, Mrs. Cox sustained serious injuries resulting from an accident, which occurring at her advanced age rendered her a helpless invalid; under condition and surrounded by the most affectionate and tender ministrations of her devoted daughters, this exemplary woman and noble mother, passed to her reward.

Mrs. Cox was a faithful graduate of the fine old school of Kentucky womanhood in all of its highest and best characteristics.

Born, reared and matured with pride of character; dignified, but unassuming, generous, kind, loving and very lovable she combined in harmonious trinity the most beautiful attributes of wife, mother and friend.

She endured the pangs of invalidism, as she was accustomed to bear all those hurts and sorrows which inevitably creep into sad afflict every human life, with a sublime patience and a meek submission to the Divine will. Indeed, the last three painful years of her life seemed to have drawn out and accentuated many Christian graces, modestly inherent in her character—just as a bruised and broken flower exhales its last and sweetest perfume.

If Mrs. Cox possessed one attribute which predominated over all others in the summation of her admirable life, it was the charm and grace of motherhood, which budded, expanded and flowered again every young thing that came within the radius of her influence and affection.

Motherhood is a comprehensive noun and includes a perfect diadem of virtues as an integral, but, standing out in characteristic prominence in the moral life of Mrs. Cox, was the grace of self-repression, as distinguished from mere self-denial, which implies personal advantage. She was, in the highest and most significant sense, an exponent of that real charity, which—

"Suffereth long and is kind—suffereth soft," which "bearith all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things."

So, all through that part of her life coming within the writer's intimate knowledge of this mild, motherly woman, went her quiet ways, dropping purest pearls of kindness in the pathway of her friends.

Her gentle influence; her pure, unselfish example; her Christian life, will cause our thoughts, in tenderest remembrance to follow

A Canadian motto: "The purchase of one thousand dollars' worth of goods from your own town or your own country, instead of purchasing outside, means the addition of one person to your town or your country instead of supporting him abroad."

Hon. Robert Backler, of Mt. Olivet, is being favorably mentioned as a possible Republican candidate for Congress in this district. While Mr. Buckler has made no announcement of his intentions, it is not necessary to say that he would at once secure a strong following throughout the district in case he should throw his hat into the ring. He is a fine lawyer, a good mixer and already well known over the district. He is quite popular and would certainly make a strong race.—Cynthiana Democrat.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore this month has decided that the only portraits to be included in the convention hall decorations will be those of Washington, Jefferson and Jackson.

In the opinion of veteran political observers the unstructured delegates will probably determine the result of the Baltimore Convention, and the actual strength of the several candidates for the Presidential nomination will probably not be known until the first ballot.

What's The Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to find the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Nine times out of ten, you will find it is all the child needs, for its restlessness and peevishness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been remedied the headache, the sluggishness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear.

Don't give the little one salts, cathartic pills or nasty waters, for these will act as purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of Mrs. M. S. Adams, Auburn, Ky., and Mrs. L. M. Boyce, Tip Top, Ky., the only laxative given is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been found to answer most perfectly all the purposes of a laxative, and its very mildness and freedom from gripping recommend it especially for the use of children, women, and old folks generally—people who need a gentle bowel stimulant. Thousands of American families have been enthusiastic about it for more than a quarter of a century.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

The militia service pension bill, drafted by Representatives Langley and Russel, was favorably reported.

The Ohio wheat crop, which has averaged 30,000,000 bushels, will not exceed 10,000,000 bushels this year.

A drummer is a person who goes out on the road and wishes he were back at home; then goes back home and wishes he were out on the road.

SPORTS

At Frankfort, with three men on bases in the fifth inning Sunday Jones of Richmond put the ball over the fence for a home run and won the game for the visitors.

Child Nagers

It is a rather needless citizen who has no fear for the children and their play, and we are with the Illinois editor who wrote when his City Council passed an ordinance prohibiting roller skating on cement sidewalks:

"There is something out of gear in the heart of man or woman who has a parlor 'too nice' for little ones to play in or who would not with joy give right of way on a sidewalk in our uncrowded smaller cities to little ones with their roller skates or coasting cars.
People thus easily annoyed by little kids will literally have a 'hell of a time' in heaven, crowded to the pearly gates with children."

If the community is not modern enough to supply the children of the congested districts with grounds where they can play without endangering life and limb, like we do here in Maysville by all means give them the only playground they can have—the streets and the sidewalks.

All matter for publication must be brought in before 5 o'clock a. m.

Arbuckle urged on duty on sugar, saying free sugar would save people $100,000,000 annually.

Dallas News: "Mrs. Pavlov says that before she was married she expected always to look up to Mr. Pavlov, but now she mostly sits up for him."

Our observation is that when a man is hungry enough he can eat his dinner at a lunch counter even after looking at the waiter's napkin.

Stanton's Portrait Unveiled

The portrait of the late Henry T. Stanton, post laureate of Kentucky, was unveiled at Frankfort Friday by his granddaughter, Miss Margaret McLean of Louisville.

The unveiling of the portrait took place in the rooms of the Historical Society at the Capitol, the meeting being presided over by Governor McCreary.

Our Colored Citizens.

Mr. John H. Miller adopted son of Della Carlyle and who made his home with her, left for Chicago, Ill., to make his home with his aunt, Mrs. Annie B. Brown and to accept a position. He was accompanied as far as Cincinnati by his aunt, Mrs. Charley Howe.

Miss Sallie Lane and Mrs. Mary Poyntz are visiting in Cincinnati for a few days at her friend, Miss Ella Lane, and her uncle, Mr.
Hewkile.

MRS. STEVENS
RECOVERS

After Years of Suffering.
Tells How Her Health
Was Regained.

Waurika, Okla.—"I had female troubles for seven years, was all run down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctors treated me for different things but did me no good. I got so bad that I could not sleep day or night. While in this condition I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began its use and wrote to you for special advice. In a short time I had regained my health and am now strong and well."
—Mrs. SALLIE STEVENS, R. F. D., No. 2, Comanche, Okla.

Another Woman Recovers.
Newton, N. H.—"For five years I suffered from female weakness and dragging down pains. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health and the pains are gone."
—Mrs. F. A. PEASLEE, R. F. D., Box 88.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Historic
BlackguardsBy
Albert Payson TerhuneGeorge IV, First Gentleman of Europe

GAY English
youths of the eighteenth century used to feel sorry for the hard luck of their prim young Prince of Wales. His father, King
George III,
brought the boy
up far more strictly than any clergyman's son. Young George Augustus Frederick was kept busy by his tutors, lectured by his parents and guarded against any knowledge of the world's gayety. If there was anything in strict upbringing he ought to have grown into a sort of a saint. Instead (when he was eighteen and the bondage of tutors and father was removed), he became one of the worst blackguards of his time.

This was in 1780. The moment his education was finished Prince George started another sort of education on his own account. Forgetting every lesson of decency that had been taught him he plunged into the wildest, most depraved dissipation. He drank, gambled, defied the moral law, his life was a national scandal. A liar, a libertine, a drunkard, a man who gambled with money that was not his own, he is said to have added to his other vices by such crooked horse racing "deals" that the Jockey club had to "warn him off the turf."

With it all he was handsome, had charm of manner—when he cared to—and was a slave (as well as master) to fashion. These qualities won him the title of "First Gentleman of Europe." His sayings, his dress, his manner were copied by the "fast set" and his approving nod was coveted by social climbers. Though he was often kindly in a careless sort of way, when it cost him nothing, yet there is perhaps no case known where he sacrificed his own comfort or pleasure for any one.

His first political act was to join his father's enemies in parliament.
In return for his support these politicians tried to raise George's yearly allowance from $250,000 to $500,000.
His father, George III, refused to allow this. And father and son grew to hate each other. The prince proceeded to run deep into debt and to marry a Mrs. Fitzherbert. As crown prince of England he had no right to marry without his father's consent. When he was brought to account for it he calmly denied the marriage and lured an unsuspecting friend (the statesman, Fox) into publicly backing the denial.

More and more money he got from parliament as time went on. But every penny of it went into gambling or for other low purposes. He was forever in debt. His father went insane, partly because of his son's behavior. George amused his cronies by mimicking the crazy king's ravings. Then in 1795, during a lucid interval, King George III, offered to pay the prince's debt if he would marry the Princess Caroline of Brunswick. George consented.

The marriage was most unhappy.
Caroline was frivolous and eccentric.
George was brutal and neglectful.
They separated after the birth of their only child, the Princess Charlotte (who died in 1817). George then maliciously accused his wife of unfaith-fulness and of other crimes. Though a court acquitted her, yet her reputation was wrecked.

George meantime had deserted his old friends and contracted new debts.
His father's insanity became permanent and George was made regent of Great Britain. His life life then grew more and more a public scandal. By the time his father died in 1820 and the prince mounted the British throne as King George IV, the people hated him. He was hissed in the public streets. Once his carriage was stoned. An attempt was also made to murder him. He did little for his country, caring for politics only as a means to get more gambling money for himself.

He won a momentary popularity by visiting Ireland in 1821 and Scotland in 1822. He was the first British king to set foot in Scotland for 173 years and he was gladly received.
(Sir Walter Scott, the great writer, was so proud of the monarch's visit that he begged leave to keep forever the glass out of which George took his first drink on Scotch soil. George gave him the glass. Scott put it in his coat tail pocket for safe keeping; then, forgetfully, sat down on it.)
In 1830, at the age of sixty-seven, George IV, died. Bad as he was and hated by decent people, England had flourished mightily during his reign.
But the land's prosperity was accomplished in spite of its king, not through any effort of his.

Worthless George IV, had unconsciously taught England an immortal lesson; namely, that a king is largely a figurehead and that a country's greatness depends not on him, but upon its people.

Studebaker-Flanders "20" Touring Car
Price, Standard Equipped, $800

Now—before you buy a car—find out what repair parts will cost you.

Parts prices are your taxes. They come to every owner and they will come to you. But you can get them low, if you will.

Most manufacturers take for granted you won't think of this before you buy a car. Then they've got you. But Studebaker says, "Find out now." Because the Studebaker maxim is—a square deal for every owner.

We guarantee E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars four times as long as most manufacturers, and then sell you parts at prices lower proportionately than any other manufacturer in the world.

NATURE'S ESSENCE...Extracted From Forest Plants.

Nature's laws are perfect, but disease follows if these laws are not obeyed. Go straight to nature for the cure, to the forest; there are mysteries here that we can learn from you. Take the bark of the wild-cherry tree, the root of mandarin, stone, Oregon grape root, queen's root, bloodroot and golden seal, make a scientific, non-alcoholic extract of them with just the right proportions and you have Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists, eight years of hard work experimenting to make this pure glyceric extract and alterative of the greatest efficiency and without the use of a particle of alcohol.

Just the sort of remedy you need to make rich, red blood, and cure that lassitude and feeling of nerve exhaustion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery bears the stamp of Public Approval and has sold more largely in the past forty years than any other blood purifier and stomach tonic.

"Some time ago I got out of health—my stomach seemed to be the seat of the trouble," writes Dr. E. W. Williams, of Belleville, Kan. "I commenced to doctor with all the doctors at home as well as with other specialists on stomach and digestive organs. None seemed to do any good—in fact, most of the medicines did me harm. Finally, I wrote to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., who replied, stating that I had liver complaint with indigestion and constipation, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' The 'Discovery' and 'Pellets' have put me on my feet again. It seems to be just what I needed. I could not have recovered without them."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ills.

LEXINGTON DEFEATED

Maysville Put Another Win Over the Plate 13 to 3—Game Today

Maysville 13, Lexington 3, is the way the arithmetic showed up on the scoreboard at the park yesterday afternoon. Bear was there with the pitching mitt and kept the Lexington boys' hits scattered.

The features were the running catch of Comings, Badger's long drive in the third, Carmony's one handed catch of Cammell's foul and Long's home run. In the fourth Ellis tripled, with nobody on base, but could not score. In the fifth Badger was fined a five-spot and put out of the game.

The score: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R. H. E.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cotburn, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains to my back and head. I had a hollow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardul, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardul and were greatly benefited. I shall always praise Cardul to sick and suffering women."

Cardul is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardul has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.
